EVALUACIÓN (instrumentos de evaluación, criterios de evaluación y porcentaje sobre la calificación final)

EVALUACIÓN ORDINARIA

- Assessment criteria: EV-C1, EV-C2, EV-C3, EV-C4.
- Assessment instruments: EV-I1, EV-I2, EV-I3, EV-I4.

As general criteria the following aspects will be evaluated both in individual and collaborative work and also in exams:

- Analysis ability
- Knowledge integration
- Ability to classify main and secondary ideas and to summarise
- Precise knowledge and analysis of facts
- Coherence in argumentation and mastery of specific vocabulary
- Interest and participation in discussions will be evaluated by means of continuous

- assessment techniques
- The activities will be supervised weekly (portfolio, class activities, seminars and workshops): (50%)
- Content-based exams: (50%)

1. Continuous assessment

- Global score will be based on:
  - Theoretical exam: 50%
  - Práctica: 50%
    - Practice 1: 5%
    - Practice 2: 5%
    - Practice 3: 5%
    - Practice 4: 5%
    - Final project and presentation: 30%
- In order for the final score to be positive, the score in each of the sections (theory and practice) must be equal to or more than 50% of the score (i.e. it is necessary to pass the theory credits and the practical credits and have a final score of at least 5 in order to be able to calculate the average score).
- The scoring system will be expressed with a numerical score in accordance with that which has been established in Article 5 of R.D. 1125/2003, 5 September, which establishes the European Credit Transfer system of qualifications in official university degrees which are valid throughout national territory. The global score will correspond to the weighed score of the different aspects and activities which make up and integrate the assessment system; in other words, the final marks of the subject will take into account the totality of the assessment criteria: Suspenso: 0.0 – 4.9; Aprobado: 5.0 – 6.9; Notable: 7.0 – 8.9; Sobresaliente: 9.0 – 10.0.

EVALUACIÓN EXTRAORDINARIA

- It will be carried out in a single academic act (on the official exam date) which will consist in:
  1. An examination of theoretical and practical questions by means of a written test based on the programme, readings and simulated situations (70%).
  2. An oral examination to demonstrate instrumental use of the language at B1 level and knowledge of subject contents (on the same day, as soon as the written exam is finished). (30%).
- The value of the final score will be the addition of both averages whenever a score of at least 5 is attained in both.

EVALUACIÓN ÚNICA FINAL

- Students who meet the requirements to complete the Single Final Assessment (for those unable to attend class) (article 8 of NCG71/2: Normativa de evaluación y de calificación de los estudiantes de la Universidad de Granada [Norms for assessment and scoring of students of the University of Granada]) http://secretariageneral.ugr.es/bougr/pages/bougr71/ncg712/!
- This will be carried out in a single academic act (on the official final exam date) which will consist in:
- An examination of theoretical and practical questions by means of a written test based on the programme, readings and simulated situations (70%).

- An oral examination to demonstrate instrumental use of the language at B1 level and knowledge of subject contents (on the same day, as soon as the written exam is finished). (30%).
- The value of the final score will be the addition of both averages whenever a score of at least 5 is attained in both.

INFORMACIÓN ADICIONAL

- Incidence Assessment
  - In relation to Incidence Assessments, the current guidelines approved by the University of Granada will be taken into account:
<https://www.ugr.es/~minpet/pages/enpdf/normativaevaluacioncalificacion.pdf>
- Extraordinary Assessment with a Panel
  - Those students who wish to Access the procedure of Assessment through a Panel must make a request in writing to the Head of Department. The request must be presented at least 15 days in advance until the date of the commencement of the final examinations in each period of final examinations, thus waiving the scores obtained during the stage of continuous assessment. In the case of subjects with sessions shared by more than one Department, the student will send their request to any one of these, and the request must be attended by the Head of Department who receives the request. The procedure of Assessment with a Panel will only be applicable for Final Examinations (Article 10).
- Students with a disability or other educational support needs
  - For students with a disability or other specific educational support needs, the assessment examinations must be adapted to their needs, in accordance with the assessment guidelines provided by the University of Granada.
<https://www.ugr.es/~minpet/pages/enpdf/normativaevaluacioncalificacion.pdf>
- Regulations for the evaluation and grading of students at the University of Granada
  - Consolidated text of the Regulations approved by the Governing Council Agreement of May 20, 2013 (BOUGR no. 71, of May 27, 2013) and modified by the Governing Council Agreements of February 3, 2014 (BOUGR no. 78, of February 10, 2014); of June 23, 2014 (BOUGR no.83, of June 25, 2014) and of October 26, 2016 (BOUGR no. 112, of November 9, 2016); includes the corrections of errors of December 19, 2016 and of May 24, 2017.
  - Article 15. Originality of the papers and tests
    1. The university of Granada encourages the respect for intellectual property and will communicate to students that plagiarism is a practice which goes against the principles of university training. For this reason, the authorship of works and their protection will be recognised in accordance with current legislation.
    2. Plagiarism, understood as the presentation or work completed by another person and presented as one's own, or the copying of texts without citing the origin and presenting them as one's own, will automatically lead to a score of zero in the subject in which this is detected, regardless of any other scores the student may have obtained. This consequence should be understood without prejudice to the disciplinary responsibilities which could be incurred among any student who plagiarises.
    3. The work and materials submitted by students must be signed with an explicit statement in which the originality of the work is assumed, understood in the sense that the student has not used sources without properly citing them.
