ASSESSMENT METHODS (Instruments, criteria and percentages)

ORDINARY EXAMINATION DIET

Attending to the Evaluation and Qualifying Regulations of the students at the University of Granada.

- Consolidated text of the Regulations approved by the Governing Council Agreement of May 20, 2013 (BOUGR No. 71, of May 27, 2013) and modified by the Governing Council Agreements of February 3, 2014 (BOUGR no. 78, of February 10, 2014); of June 23, 2014 (BOUGR No. 83, of June 25, 2014) and of October 26, 2016 (BOUGR No. 112, of November 9, 2016); includes bug fixes of December 19, 2016 and May 24, 2017.

In accordance with the Regulations for the evaluation and qualification of students at the University of Granada (Approved by the Governing Council in its extraordinary session of May 20, 2013), the evaluation will be continuous.

For this evaluation modality, attendance to at least 80% of the subject is compulsory. Only 20% of excused absences will be allowed.

Evaluation criteria:

- EV-C1: Verification of the mastery of the theoretical and practical contents and critical elaboration of them.
- EV-C2: Assessment of the work carried out, individually or in groups, taking into account the presentation, writing and clarity of ideas, structure and scientific level, creativity, justification of what it argues, capacity and richness of the criticism that is made, and updating of the bibliography consulted. Likewise, the correct use of the foreign language (level B2) will be taken into account.
- EV-C3: Degree of involvement of the students and manifest attitude in their participation in the consultations, exhibitions and debates; as well as in the preparation and presentation of the work, individual or in teams, and in the sharing sessions.
- EV-C4: Attendance and active participation in theoretical and practical classes and in specialized tutorials, in seminars and group sessions.

Evaluation tools:

- Theoretical-practical essays/tests based on the syllabus (60% of weight on the final grade).
- Practical work and their presentations, following the following percentages:
  - Practice 1: 15% of the final grade (oral/written presentation, individual/groupal)
  - Practice 2: 25% of the final grade (oral/written presentation, individual/groupal)
  - Practices are compulsory.

Another grouping of practices and its percentage value may be made to facilitate the adaptation of the teaching guide to the peculiarities of the class and / or group.

To successfully pass the subject, each of the previous sections referring to evaluation (theory and practice) must be passed (minimum 5/10).

The final grade will take into account the use and correctness of the English language demonstrated throughout the course (B2) and participation in class.

The grading system will be expressed by numerical grading in accordance with the provisions of article 5. of R.D. 1125/2003, of September 5, which establishes the European credit system and the system of qualifications at university degrees and official in the national territory. The overall rating will correspond to the score of the different aspects and activities that make up the evaluation system

EXTRAORDINARY EXAMINATION DIET

It consists of a second annual call for the subject. The evaluation criteria are the same as those established in the single evaluation. The instruments and percentages are:

- Written and oral theoretical-practical essays/tests based on the syllabus (100% of the final grade).

The final grade will take into account the use and correctness of the English language demonstrated throughout the course (B2) and participation in class.

The grading system will be expressed by numerical grading in accordance with the provisions of article 5. of R.D. 1125/2003, of September 5, which establishes the European credit system and the system of qualifications at university degrees and official in the national territory. The overall rating will correspond to the score of the different aspects and activities that make up the evaluation system.

SINGLE FINAL ASSESSMENT (evaluación única final)

Students who cannot comply with the ongoing assessment methodology for justified reasons should request the Department Head, in accordance with the procedures regulated for this purpose, to be entitled to single final assessment.

Evaluation criteria

- EV-C1: Verification of the mastery of the theoretical and practical contents and critical elaboration of them.
- EV-C2: Assessment of the work carried out, individually or in groups, taking into account the presentation, writing and clarity of ideas, structure and scientific level, creativity, justification of what it argues, capacity and richness of the criticism that is made, and updating of the bibliography consulted. Likewise, the correct use of the foreign language (level B2) will be taken into account.

Evaluation tools

- Written and oral theoretical-practical essays/tests based on the syllabus (100% of the final grade).

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Evaluation due to unexpected circumstances

- Regarding the evaluation by incidents, the current regulations approved by the University of Granada will be taken into account. The student must notify it according to the provisions of the regulations.
- <https://www.ugr.es/~minpet/pages/enpdf/normativaevaluacioncalificacion.pdf>

Evaluation by panel of professors

- Students who wish to be evaluated by panel of lecturers should apply in writing to the Head of Department.
- The application must be submitted at least fifteen business days in advance of the start date of the final testing period of each call, renouncing the grades obtained by performing the different tests of continuous evaluation.
- In the case of undergraduate subjects with teaching shared by several Departments, the student will direct the request to any of them, and must be resolved by the Directorate of the Department to which the request is addressed.

- The evaluation procedure by court will only be applicable to the final tests (Article 10).

Evaluation of students with educational supporting needs (ESNS)

- In the case of students with specific educational support needs, the evaluation tests must be adapted to their needs, in accordance with the evaluation regulations of the University of Granada.
